

English and Social Studies

Northland Campus (Kerikeri)

- Aspirational and progressive education environment
- Excellent opportunities for professional development

“Our teaching professionals are learning coaches. They make learning visible and facilitate students to become self-directed in their personal discovery of where they are, where they are going and what they need to do to get there.”

Westmount School is a Year 3-13 independent special character school with an innovative approach to education that prides itself on having excellent facilities, motivated students and a supportive community behind it.

With 14 campuses, 160 teaching staff and over 1,300 students, Westmount delivers the full New Zealand curriculum within a progressive culture. The school's vision of personalised learning for all students ensures that they are able to maximise their full learning potential by offering small class sizes within a well-resourced, supportive and collegial team environment.

Our Northland Campus in Kerikeri is seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and capable New Zealand registered teacher of English and Social Studies. This permanent, full-time role would suit a teacher with recent NCEA experience and a dedication to promoting self-directed learning.

The successful candidate will be responsible for planning and delivering high quality lessons, instilling in their students a desire to learn promoting self-directed learning programmes. You will also possess the ability to integrate ICT skills into the teaching and learning programme, and have an excellent record of forging positive relationships with students.

This is an exciting opportunity for candidates dedicated to providing high quality learning programmes in an innovative and positive learning environment.

For further information, please contact Iain Longden on (09) 320 0593 or recruitment@westmount.school.nz

Closing date for applications: Friday, 28 July 2017